

English (W22U22)

Course ID	Name of Course	Type	Sem	SKS	Description
W22U22	English	M	2	2	This course covers four English skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing. This course covers the rules of English grammar, communication in the field of information technology, both oral and written expression, listening and presenting videos in the field of information technology, translating information technology texts from English to Indonesian and vice versa, and writing articles in the field of information technology. In addition, students also gain knowledge and practice of TOEFL capability.